

Assistantship

Prof. Dr. Francis Cheneval
Chair in Political Philosophy
francis.cheneval@philos.uzh.ch

For the H2020 project “Integrity” the Chair in Political Philosophy is looking for a research assistant (40%).

The position will start on March 1 or as agreed and last until 31.12.2019.

Duties:

Support the main researchers in establishing a European survey on research ethics training:

preparation of items, collecting feedback from project colleagues on the design, pre-testing, advertisement of the survey, collection of information on research ethics training across Europe, qualitative analysis of written answers to open questions, statistical analysis of quantifiable information, e.g., on learning objectives, use of methods, appreciation of methods, and preparation of a report

Required qualification and skills:

- BA in social science
- very good knowledge of qualitative and quantitative methods
- very good knowledge of English
- very good IT-skills

The application material (short cover letter and cv) should be sent to:
francis.cheneval@philos.uzh.ch

The application deadline is February 15, 2019