Student Assistant / Hilfsassistent*in Position (20-25%)

We are inviting applications for a Student Assistant / Hilfsassistent*in (20-25%) starting on May 1, 2022. This position is funded by the Digital Society Initiative of the University of Zurich (www.dsi.uzh.ch) to support the Digital Monitor project (digitalmonitor23.ch) for a duration of 6 months. In collaboration with smartvote the project aims to capture the positions of candidates in the 2023 Swiss national elections with regard to digital policy. This position is jointly advertised by Prof. Karsten Donnay and Prof. Lucas Leemann. Please direct any questions you might have to donnay@ipz.uzh.ch.

Responsibilities

The position supports all aspects of the Digital Monitor project at the University of Zurich and the Digital Society Initiative. This includes coordination and communication with different stakeholders but also supporting all aspects of the survey administered through smartvote. This is an inter-disciplinary, cross-institutional project involving colleagues in Bern and Geneva.

Level of employment

20-25%

Qualifications

The position is particularly suitable for third-year BA or first-year MA students with experience in surveys and survey questionnaire design and analysis.
